

Invitation to participate in Mercy High School's 8th annual,
A Toast to Mercy; A Taste and Take Wine, Distilled Spirits & Food Event at Kohl Mansion!

Taste & Take at Kohl Mansion is a unique opportunity to promote your bottles and bites to kick off the holiday season! Each year our popularity grows – drawing 500 attendees. Participating vendors pour and share their craft in an atmosphere of great cheer and generosity.

This year's event will be held Friday, November 22nd from 7:00-10:00 pm at the Historic Kohl Mansion, splendidly decorated for Christmas. This year we are again inviting select culinary artists (Caterers, Restaurants), the opportunity to personally prosper and enhance the event. If you would like to feature your Food and Business at this year's event, please complete the attached form ASAP and return to:

All food vendors will keep 100% of profits and there is no charge to participate. All sales transactions will be made through the purchase of food tickets from Mercy at the event, and used as tender for food sales. All Food Tickets used as Tender will be collected and counted at the conclusion of the event and a reimbursement check will be mailed or ready for pick up by Thursday December 5, 2019. As a participant in A Taste of Mercy, merchants will be recognized in the Mercy High School Annual Report Magazine, "The Oaks" circulation 9000, as well as in all print and electronic marketing material distributed in support of the event. Below are specifics for the 2019 Taste and Take Wine Event this fall:

Event Date: Friday, November 22, 2019
